

AMERICA'S FAVORITE SPORTS

Sports are a large part of almost every culture in the world. Here in the United States, the "big four" sports include football, baseball, basketball and hockey. Take a look at how each sport is favored in the U.S.

NFL and College Football

A combined 42% of American adults listed either professional or college football as their favorite sport according to a Harris Interactive Poll.

Baseball

America's pastime was second only to professional football (32%) for America's favorite sport. It collected 16% of the vote.

Auto Racing

Perhaps a surprise to some, auto racing is the fourth favorite sport for Americans at 7% of the vote. It sits behind college football, baseball and NFL football.

NBA

Professional basketball is tied for fifth on the list, tallying 6% of Americans listing it as their favorite sport with men's college basketball at 3%.

Ice Hockey

Ice hockey is also tied with NBA basketball and men's soccer at 6% of the vote. Basketball and hockey are the two lowest ranking of the four major sports.

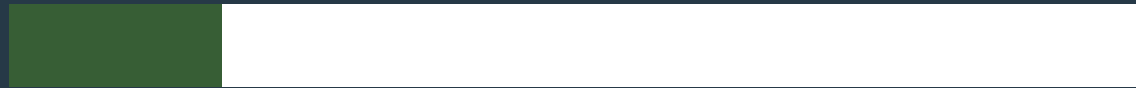

Auto Racing 7%

Baseball 16%

Basketball 9%

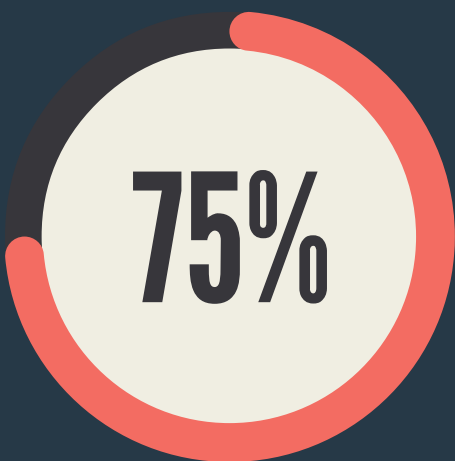

Football 42%

Ice Hockey 6%

Other 33%

The NFL accounts for 75% of the overall vote for football while college football accounts for the other 25%.
